

PRINT OPERATIVE

Forum Packaging Ltd is renowned for its award winning printing capabilities and due to its continued growth it is looking for a print operative to join its busy print department.

This fantastic opportunity will give either a time served printer the opportunity to work with a progressive printing company or an inexperienced print enthusiast the opportunity to train in a recognised printing profession on a variety of 4 to 8 colour flexographic printers.

Initially, whilst training, the hours of work will be on a two shift rotating pattern. Once competent in the role, applicants will then be expected to move to a three shift rotating pattern; Monday to Friday: 6-2, 2-10, 10-6 (37.5 hrs per week). Successful candidates will be expected to have;

Skills and Personal Qualities:

- Practical and good manual dexterity with some basic mechanical knowledge
- Punctual and reliable
- Be able to effectively communicate verbally and in writing
- Be quality conscious and pay attention to detail
- Positive, flexible approach and capable of multiskilling
- Able to think logically and have a methodical approach to tasks and problems
- Ability to organise and prioritise workload
- Be able to work well as part of a team
- Be able to use own initiative
- Ability to work accurately, efficiently and to tight deadlines
- Achieve optimum output whilst maintaining high quality standards
- Keep calm under pressure
- Able to follow instructions and complete within given timescales
- Willing to learn and train in all roles in the print department: operator, assistant operator, pre-press and print setting

Experience and Qualifications:

- Minimum of two years' experience working in a print or manufacturing environment
- Previous printing experience, ideally in flexographic printing, would be beneficial
- Working with computer systems and computer literate
- Experience of working on a three shift system, morning, afternoons and nights
- Have a good understanding of health, safety, quality, hygiene and environmental procedures and standards
- Ideally you will have a minimum of three GCSEs (or equivalent)

What we can offer:

- 25 days holiday + Bank Holidays
- Competitive salary
- Pension scheme
- DIS Benefit (after 12 months)
- Sick pay scheme (after 12 months)
- On site parking

If you have the basic skills required and would like to join a successful, friendly and well-established company that can provide a competitive salary and benefits package, then please email your CV to Jo Topley, HR Manager, Forum Packaging Ltd.

Please provide an email address and mobile telephone number on your application. If successful, an invitation to attend an interview will be sent via email or text message. Closing date for applications 08/04/2022.
